

BORN & BRED IN MASHAM, YORKSHIRE

Paul Nolan, Non-Executive Director at Black Sheep Brewery has indicated he does not wish to seek re-election to the Board of Black Sheep Brewery at the Company's AGM on October 15. Paul has added greatly to the Board in recent years, not least in the acquisition of York Brewery in 2018, but leaves to concentrate on other work commitments.

The team at Black Sheep wish Paul the very best for the future.
